FIDDLERS HAMLET

THE MERRY FIDDLERS

A lovely Family run Pub and Restaurant dating back to the 17th century. Fiddlers Hamlet takes its name from The Merry Fiddlers Inn.

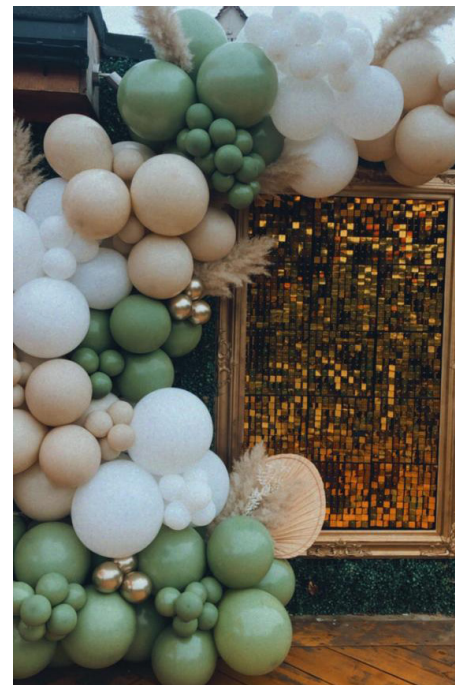

THE PUB

Recently renovated with eye catching decor but in keeping with the historic 1700's features, such as the huge red brick fire place with a lovely fire that will keep you cosy in the winter months.

OUTDOORS

During the summer we have one of the largest Pub Gardens in the area. A children's play area and a bouncy castle are available to keep little ones entertained while adults enjoy a drink or two in the sunshine.

The family pride themselves on making every customer feel welcome and at home.

The Merry Fiddlers circa 1905

The Merry Fiddlers is located at the centre of Fiddlers Hamlet, which takes its name from the Pub. The first recorded publican was John Hampton in 1832, when the pub was also the village Post Office.
